

Ghosts of Gettysburg: The Headquarters

Price: $9.95

Product Categories: Audio/Video, CDs/DVDs

Product Page:

<https://ghostsofgettysburg.com/our-store/audio-video-products/ghosts-of-gettysburg-the-headquarters/>

Product Summary

Ghosts of Gettysburg: The Headquarters. An investigation by Mark Nesbitt, Brad Christman and the Ghosts of Gettysburg Investigative Team in the very house it calls its headquarters. Located at 271 Baltimore Street, occupied by the Confederacy during the Battle of Gettysburg in 1863, the house has been the scene of many strange encounters by staff and visitors.

<http://southernghostsavannah.com/wp-content/uploads/2016/05/gog-hq.mp3>

Product Description

Ghosts of Gettysburg: The Headquarters

An investigation by Mark Nesbitt, Brad Christman and the Ghosts of Gettysburg Investigative Team in the very house it calls its headquarters. Located at 271 Baltimore Street, occupied by the Confederacy during the Battle of Gettysburg in 1863, the house has been the scene of many strange encounters by staff and visitors.

<http://southernghostsavannah.com/wp-content/uploads/2016/05/gog-hq.mp3>

Product Gallery

An investigation by the Ghosts of Gettysburg Team in the very house it calls its headquarters. Located at 271 Baltimore Street, occupied by the Confederacy during the Battle of Gettysburg in 1863, the house has been the scene of many strange encounters by staff and visitors.

Mark Nesbitt

Mark Nesbitt is an author, historian, and paranormal investigator. He has published feature books, including several historical works and the national award-winning Ghosts of Gettysburg series. His stories have been seen on The History Channel, A&E, Discovery Channel, Travel Channel, Unsubbed Mystery, numerous regional television shows, and heard on Coast to Coast AM and regional radio. In 1994, he created the commercially successful Ghosts of Gettysburg: Candidate Writing Tour and in 2006, the Ghosts of Independence Tour.

Brad Christman

With a radio journalism career spanning more than two decades, Brad has been the recipient of more than 40 awards for broadcasting and journalistic excellence from organizations including the Associated Press, UPI, the National Association of State Radio Networks, the National Headliner Award, the Pennsylvania Association of Broadcasters & more. He met Mark Nesbitt while researching a radio documentary in 2006. Brad was born and raised in Chambersburg, Pennsylvania (21 miles from Gettysburg), and early on, developed a deep respect for Gettysburg's history.

Special thanks to Laine Crosby, Scott Coverson, Craig Rhodes, Patty Wilson
The Ghosts of Gettysburg
271 Baltimore Street
Gettysburg, PA 17325
www.goghostsofgettysburg.com

Christman Media
Harrisburg, PA
ChristmanMedia@aol.com

Run time: 60 minutes

Cover design by Carol Nesbitt

©2008 Mark Nesbitt, Brad Christman All Rights Reserved

This program is presented for private use only. Any unauthorized use, broadcast, distribution or delivery of this audio product, in whole or in part, without the express prior written consent of Mark Nesbitt or Brad Christman shall not be permitted, and may be regarded as a violation of copyright.